Plumbing Material

WITHOUT A PLUMBER to put up the articles in first-class style is of very small advantage to the average householder. The people of Honolulu have been "cinched" so often by plumbers that they are afraid to set one onto a job by day's work.

BAILEY'S PLUMBING SHOP will put your plumbing in condition and connect with the sewer for a very low figure. And guarantee the job will PASS INSPECTION by the GOVERNMENT officials. And also guarantee that day's work by honest men is cheaper than contract. Contracts are taken, however, and promptly filled by

ADM. BEARDSLEE ON THE HONGKONG

Returning Home From Japan,
Where He Unveiled Perry
Monument.

Admiral Lester A. Beardslee, U. S. N., retired, accompanied by his wife, returned from Japan to Washington, D. C., on the Hongkong Maru, which arrived at the Pacific Mail dock at Honolulu yesterday afternoon. Captain Merry, U. S. N., and other officers from the naval command, and others from the naval command, were on hand to meet the Admiral. His recent expedition to Japan, where he was the guest of the Emperor, was a notable one.

ADMIRAL BEARDSLEE, U.S.N., RETIRED.

The figure in the unveiling of the monument is well known.

Admiral Beardslee said yesterday:

"I am glad to say that I had the honor to unveil the monument to the memory of Commodore Perry such a fine monument as that unveiled in Japan last year. It was a notable event in the history of Japan. I am the only survivor of the expedition which Commodore Perry headed when he took an expedition to Japan in 1853. I was a cadet and served on the Plymouth. The raising of the funds for the monument took about nine months. I was aided by Japanese of influence. When I found the right man to hold the subscriptions the work went along easily and the monument was finished in time."

Admiral Beardslee stated he was on his way home, and would visit Washington. He was in Honolulu about a week on his way to Japan. Prior to his visit he was here in 1895, on the occasion of the trial of Queen Elizabeth in progress. The Admiral has little to say concerning affairs of the Philippines or in China. He was very enthusiastic on the subject of Japan and its development. An interesting visit there. The Admiral is revered in Japan. He was associated with the Commodore, as Admiral Beardslee receives every attention possible from the emperor down to the subject.
